

Unit 9 | Session 1

What to wear at work - Baby photos

Learning objective: compare stores and what they sell, and talk about people in photos

Unit 9 | Session 1

What to wear at work - Baby photos

Learning objective: compare stores and what they sell, and talk about people in photos

Lesson Overview

- 1 Get started : Compare the looks.
- 2 Prepare: Compare the stores.
- 3 Speaking: Comparing stores
- 4 Prepare: Superlatives – “Who’s the ...est?”
- 5 Speaking: Sharing photos
- 6 Progress check

GET STARTED: Compare the looks.

A

B

more/less...

colorful elegant fashionable formal/informal
good/bad
modern/traditional old/new serious
trendy

PREPARE: Compare the stores.

A

B

A looks like a more expensive store and the clothes seem more fashionable. I think B sells cheaper clothes, but people in store B may be friendlier.

PREPARING TO SPEAK Comparing stores

Think of two places in your town where you can buy clothes and fashion accessories.

Think about differences and similarities between the stores and the things they sell.

SPEAKING Comparing stores

Describe two stores to each other. Decide on two different places and discuss their differences.

Tell the class about them.

Do you know the stores your classmates are talking about?

Useful language

X is more/less expensive than Y but ...

The clothes are cheaper at... because

The clothes at X are less formal...

X is better for work clothes but...

The staff are friendlier...

cheap / expensive
big / small
modern / traditional
friendly / helpful

PREPARE: Superlatives – “Who’s the ...est?”

tall short young old
serious loud funny
cool shy

Useful language

the woman with the
dark/red/ straight /curly hair

the man with the dark
hair/no beard

PREPARE: Superlatives “Who has the ...est?”

Put the adjectives in parentheses in the superlative form.

Which of your friends or family members has ...

- 1 the _____ eyes? (beautiful)
- 2 the _____ beard? (big)
- 3 the _____ makeup? (cool)
- 4 the _____ hair? (curly)
- 5 the _____ hair? (dark)
- 6 the _____ smile? (friendly)
- 7 the _____ clothes? (good)
- 8 the _____ jewelry? (interesting)

PREPARING TO SPEAK Sharing photos

Find a photo on your phone of a group of people you know. They could be classmates, colleagues, or members of a sports team you play for. If you don't have a photo on your phone, think of a photo you like, and that you can describe to your partners, e.g., a class photo, or a special occasion.

Prepare to talk about the people in the photo. Think of at least two things you can say about each person using a superlative adjective.

SPEAKING Sharing photos

Describe your photos to each other.
Ask questions about the people.
Do they have anything in common?

Useful Language

This is a photo of ...

This is ... he/she is the ...est person in the group/in my family.

This is ... he/she has theest

Progress check

Now I can ...

- ☐ compare two things, people or places.
- ☐ compare two or more people.
- ☐ talk about stores and what they sell.
- ☐ talk about people in photos.

Unit 9 | Session 1

What to wear at work - Baby photos

Learning objective: compare stores and what they sell, and talk about people in photos

Thank you!