

Unit 10 | Session 1

Danger on the job .- Don't worry, dad

Learning objective: talk about how to avoid danger at work,
and make predictions about your future

Unit 10 | Session 1

Danger on the job

Learning objective: talk about danger at work, and make predictions about your future

Lesson Overview

- 1 Get started: Talking about jobs
- 2 Prepare: Guess the job!
- 3 Speaking: Danger at work
4. Prepare: Find five ways of making predictions
5. Speaking: Five years from now
- 4 Progress check

Get started: Talking about jobs

accountant	architect	call center worker
dentist	engineer	IT specialist
lawyer	mechanic	nurse
paramedic	photographer	physical therapist
police officer	project manager	receptionist

- Do you know anyone who does any of these jobs?
- What do they enjoy about their work?
- Which jobs would you like to do? Why?
- Are there any jobs you wouldn't like to do? Why?

Prepare: Guess the job!

Useful language

Do you usually ...?

Yes, I do.

Do you have to ...?

No, I don't.

Are you a/an ... ?

work long hours

work from home

work with people

wear special clothes

get special training

work nights / on the weekend

Prepare: Guess the job!

Useful language

Do you usually ...?

Do you have to ...?

Are you a/an ... ?

work long hours

work from home

work with people

wear special clothes

get special training

work nights / on the weekend

Prepare: Guess the job! Reporting back

She usually has to/doesn't have to work long hours.

She often has to/doesn't have to work nights and on the weekend.

She has to/doesn't have to wear a uniform, but she has to/doesn't have to wear a tie.

Do/does she have to work long hours?
Yes, she does. / No, she doesn't.

Prepare: Find five ways of making predictions

- Oh no, what do you think's happened?
- I don't know... it might be serious.
- No, he'll probably be fine.
- Maybe it's his ankle, right?
- Yes, he may have a twisted ankle, you're right.
- I just hope it's nothing serious.
- Anyway, let's call the doctor. I'm sure it won't be anything bad.

Speaking: Danger at work

Which jobs are the most and least dangerous? Why?

Useful language

Being a (paramedic) is dangerous because you sometimes have to ...

Being an (accountant) can sometimes be dangerous if you ...

I don't think ... is dangerous because you don't have to ...

The most dangerous job is ... because ...

The least dangerous job is ... because

Prepare: Making predictions

- Oh no, what do you think's happened?
- I don't know... it might be serious.
- No, I he'll probably be fine.
- Maybe it's his ankle, right?
- Yes, he may have a twisted ankle, you're right.
- I just hope it's nothing serious.
- Anyway, let's call the doctor. I'm sure it won't be anything bad.

PREPARE: Five years from now

Family life
Health
Home
Studies
Work

Speaking: Five years from now...

- Will you live in a house or an apartment? Will you own or rent it?
- Do you think you will study or work? What will you do ?
- Will you be fit and healthy?
- Will you have a larger family?...

Student A
Make a prediction.
“I think I’ll live in an apartment.”

Student B
Try to say something positive.
“Well, maybe it will be a really nice one downtown.”

Progress check

Now I can ...

- ☐ use have to and don't have to to talk about jobs.
- ☐ discuss the possible dangers of different jobs.
- ☐ make predictions about the future.

Unit 10 | Session 1

Danger on the job - Don't worry, dad

Learning objective: talk about how to avoid danger at work,
and make predictions about your future

Thank you!